2. What should authors do?

- Authors who are willing to publish their article, should choose ONLY ONE of the above journal targets.

- Download the suitable template and draft your manuscript by following the author guideline of the designated journal.
 - After the conference, you can submit your full paper to: pharmstep@proton.me. Corresponding author will be notified through email few days after the conference.
 - PHARMSTEP scientific committee will evaluate the manuscript and send the letter of acceptance to your email. This means that your manuscript will be proceed to the journal target selected before to be further reviewed.
3. Committee and journal editors' decisions
- Authors should be aware that the final decision for the manuscript acceptance is decided by the journal editors. Therefore, the committee do not guarantee that all articles is accepted. However, the recommendation of the PHARMSTEP scientific boards is mandatory for the article to be proceed to the journal.
4. Review process
- All submitted abstracts will undergo peer review by at least one independent reviewers from the Scientific Committee. Evaluation will be based on scientific quality, originality, clarity, and relevance to the themes of the seminar.
 - The review process is blind, meaning reviewer(s) will not have access to the names, institutions, or affiliations of the authors.
 - The Scientific Committee reserves the right to assign the final presentation type (oral or poster) based on merit and program balance.
5. For oral presenters
- The number of oral presenters will be limited and adjusted to the time allocated in the seminar schedule. The decision of whom will be presenting at the seminar will be decided by the scientific board.
 - Oral presentations will be delivered in person at the conference venue.
 - Each presentation is allocated strictly for 10 minutes: 7 minutes for the talk and 3 minutes for discussion.
 - Sessions will be supported by audio-visual facilities and recorded for potential post-symposium access.
6. For poster presenters
- Author must print their poster individually in a form of an X-banner (poster including the stand) and contact the committee on the day; Please not that we DO NOT provide poster stand for the poster presentation.
 - Posters must be prepared in portrait orientation; the dimension of the poster should match the poster stand and should not exceed the A0 dimension
 - Dedicated poster viewing sessions will allow interaction between presenters and attendees.

We look forward for your participation.

Kind regards,
Scientific committee.
